In order to become Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) certified through Northwest Certified Forestry's (NCF) group certificate, please be aware that you will need to fulfill the following:

- Submit and follow a comprehensive forest management plan for the properties included in this application. The plan must be reviewed and approved by NCF staff as meeting FSC standards for the Pacific Coast Region.
- Sign a Service Agreement with Northwest Natural Resource Group
- Submit proof of ownership or lease rights for the properties in question
- Complete a member survey

- Pay your annual membership fee following management plan approval and prior to your on-site assessment. Standard fees are as follows. Fees for acreages over 2470 are negotiated based on a variety of factors.

Membership Level	Acreage	Annual Fee
Basic Member	<400 acres	$200
Intermediate Member	401-2470 acres	.50¢/acre

- Receive a site assessment visit from an approved NCF Monitor.

If your property and management system are compliant with FSC standards, you will receive an NCF Certificate of Membership which allows you to market and sell products within the FSC system.

If your assessment results in preconditions, you will have an additional ninety days to achieve compliance. If you cannot or do not wish to meet compliance requirements within ninety days, the NCF will charge the actual cost of the monitoring visit (based on $40/hour and .375¢/mile) or 60% of your original fee, whichever is lower, and refund the remainder of your fee. You may be charged additional fees for time and travel, not to exceed the amount of your original fee, for additional field auditing required to verify compliance with preconditions.

Participation in NCF is fully voluntary, and you are free to end your membership at anytime for any reason, thereby relinquishing all rights to make FSC or NCF claims via NCF's group certificate. If you wish to re-join NCF, restrictions may apply.

Please sign below as acknowledgement that you understand and agree to the commitments described herein.
